PHOTOGRAPHIC POLICY

STATEMENT OF INTENT

Connect4Summer will ensure that any photography or form of imagery undertaken of the children will only be carried out with the express permission of the parent/carer and child involved.

Any imagery taken, of any person, in any form, linked with Connect4Summer will be asked for their express permission to do so.

PROCEDURE

No photography will be undertaken without the express permission of the parent/carer and child involved

Permissions are requested on our daily register signing in sheet and a policy is available for all families to read with the sign in sheet each day

All staff will be made aware of the procedure for photography in any form

All staff have the right to challenge any person with photographic equipment and reserve the right to exclude that person from taking any photographic images of children within the Connect4Summer activities

Any issues regarding photography must be logged on an incident sheet and reported to the lead Playworker immediately

Any staff taking picture or videos for evaluation purposes must also gain written consent to do so from parent/carer and child
